New Year , New Beginnings

The new years come and old ones pass by Our old habits go, and new comes come by
It is us who decide it to be good or bad.

I push aside my past mistakes, for this day i choose to correct them
May every great day,
Bring us sweet happiness and surprises

A happiness buffet, you choose, what kind of happiness you want to indulge in.
A change to change
A chance to gain,

A chance to get you past mistakes right.
Let's flourish and enjoy this new year.
The old year is behind us,
To the new year, just begun.
