Summer begins while winter ends
The bloodshed, brothers cease to end
With no bemoan, they stay for land
Well they are indeed an Indian

We can't equate him with others Who resolved the riots through his life
Who with love made us unite
Well he is indeed an Indian

She ablazed in that war
Who got killed fiendishly by those men
Till the end she didn't give up
Well she is indeed an Indian

How fretful we are when it is about Hindustan
We make sacrifices for Bharat which determines what we are
We'll always be frantic for our land
Well we indeed are Indian.

To us Indians, she is our Bharat Mata,
Secular, socialistic, a democratic republic
We are all optimistic.

I may seem regular, call me a civilian
But here I’m indeed an Indian!

From the roots of this very country
Have risen Bhagat Singh and Gandhiji
But those outlanders robbed her off with everything.

She gave to the world zero,
And produced many heros.
Chandrayan and Chandrayan-2,
Mangalyaan was a success too.

Monuments here and there,
You can find them everywhere.

“INDEED AN INDIAN”

Shrivelling in the cold,
But guns steady in the hands
Threats to We all around
But heads held high as they trudge forward.
Valiant warriors who know no fear
Indeed, they are Indians
Guardians of this extravagant nation.

Sore legs and tired body
Dancing with the grace of a peacock
Anklets jingling, reviving everyone around.
Years of practice, hours spent
Classical dancers they are utmost beauty
Indeed, they are Indians
Upholders of our alluring culture.

Troubling times, sound protests
Rising in unity, we stand together
Come what may
Fighting against injustice
Indeed, they are Indians
Youth, the future of our country.
Never will my head bow down
For an Indian is what I am
Born with pride in this glorious nation
Surrounded with magnificently diverse cultures
Indeed an Indian
Bound by my principle, backed by my people
